BIOGRAPHY

As you read this brief bio about our District Superintendent, you will see that his life, besides centering around our Lord, centers around his family. His whole bio is about his family, not him. He is married to his wife, Anne, whom he met at Warren W. Willis Youth Camp in Leesburg, Fl., and they have been married for over 31 years. They have three adult children, Sara, Brian, and Price. They have two grandchildren, Lillie and Holden, and two step-grandchildren, Selah and JP. Anne has worked as a Director of Christian Education, tutored and taught all age levels from preschool to college. Sara works for an engineering firm, owns a photography business, and makes quilts. Brian, who lives in Brooklyn, New York, works in Digital Product Development at The New York Times. Price, the youngest, is a senior at Auburn University, majoring in Business Management. Durwood is happy just being a husband, father, Granddaddy and Granddude. He also enjoys anything that has to do with the water- especially shallow water and flats fishing. He also enjoys grilling, singing, and music in general. Right now, he is enjoying opportunities to visit, worship with, and serve each of the churches in this very diverse district and getting acquainted with the faith community.
