Sermon Notes

Pentecost

The story is in Acts 2.

We celebrate Pentecost as the birthday of the church.

The color for Pentecost is _____ to represent the _____

What is the story?

The disciples were _____

The _____ entered the room and as a mighty _____.

Small _____ appeared above each head, and they began to speak in _____.

A crowd gathered outside, and was able to hear the works of _____ each in their own language.

_____ people came to believe in Christ that day and the church was born.

The Holy Spirit is the person of God on earth with us now. The Holy Spirit convicts us and allows us to hear God in our daily lives.

This Week's Challenges

Think about your church family this week and how you are connected to them.

Ask God for the Holy Spirit's presence in your life, then look for ways the Holy Spirit might be working within you.

PRAYER LIST

- Craig Messer is doing well, please continue to lift him and his family in prayer.
- Gail says Don is doing well at Health South and can receive visitors during the lunch hour and after 3pm only.
- Mary Taylor's surgery went well, Mary also asks prayers for her cousin Ann Lehman, who took a fall and sustained severe facial damage, and is now in hospice.
- Edie Hubbard and family would like to thank the church for all the love and support!
- Dorothy Hutto asks continued prayer for Jeanne Robbins.
- Please continue to pray for baby Ben.

Please pray for the church and these individuals and their families.
