"Greetings Chaires United Methodist Church:

Cindy and I look forward to our move this week to Chaires United Methodist Church. We are excited to hear about all that God has been doing at Chaires UMC and the surrounding community. I am grateful for the spiritual leadership of Reverend Bethany Douty the past two years and look forward, with God's help and your prayers to continue the ministry at Chaires UMC.

For the past six years we have been serving at Davie United Methodist Church, Davie, FL (near Fort Lauderdale), where I served as the Senior Pastor. Prior to Davie we lived in Fort Myers where Cindy worked for the State of Florida, Department of Children and Families and I worked as a Mortgage Banker in Naples and Fort Myers. I received my call to ministry while serving as Lay Leader at Cypress Lake United Methodist Church in Fort Myers where we as a family worshiped for several years. After my call into ministry, we served at Alva United Methodist Church, near Fort Myers.

Cindy was born in Fort Pierce, Florida and has family ties to Tallahassee. Her maternal grandmother lived in Wakulla Beach until her death several years ago. I was born in Bristol, Virginia. My parents moved to Sheridan, Indiana (north of Indianapolis) when I was a child and I remained there until I moved to Florida in 1978. I proudly served as a Hospital Corpsman in the United States Navy for four years.

Cindy and I have been married for 35 years and have one daughter (Jessica) who lives in Denver, Colorado.

We eagerly look forward to joining you in ministry within the community of Chaires and to share God's amazing love."
