- Barbara also reminded the ladies to sign up to bring flowers for the alter.

Refuge House report given by Margaret Boyette:

Filled 30 bags for the Refuse House on March 14, 2017. Need combs and toothpaste

OLD BUSINESS:

- Jean Ingram reported that the Valentine's Banquet was very nice and 76 people attended. Renee Grubb did a very good job as MC and providing the entertainment.

- Jean Ingram reported that the UMW officers attended the Leadership Training on January 28, 2017 which was held at Tallahassee Heights United Methodist Church.
- March 17, 2017 there will be a dinner and sing-a-long at Church. Johnny Petrandis will provide the meal and UMW will provide the tea, ice, and desserts. Gail Dampier and Barbara Palmer will bring the tea and 7 ladies volunteered to bring desserts.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Jean Ingram suggested that the ladies have another bake sale. It was decided to have the bake sale on April 15, 2017. The ladies signed up to bring baked items. We can also take special orders. We will let the people at Cornerstone Cuts and Color know about the sale as they expressed an interest in purchasing items when we had the sale before Christmas.
- Jean Ingram reported that there will be a mini-retreat at the Salem United Methodist Church in Havana, Fl. on April 29, 2017. The program will be - "The Bible and Human Sexuality: Claiming God's Good Gift."
- Susan Grantham will contact Chaires Elementary School about a good date after Easter to bring our annual treats to the Chaires teachers and staff.
- Susan Grantham reported that Paula Winter will be retiring the end of April. It was suggested that we do something for Paula on the 5th Sunday of April.
- Evelyn Brown suggested that we contact the Trustees concerning doing a yard clean-up before Easter.
- Evelyn Brown asked about having a Women's Retreat in the Fall. The ladies were asked to think about having a retreat and to come up with some topic ideas for the retreat.
